PAPERMAKING IN CANADA.

Dominion Contains Great Facilities for Manufacture of Wood Pulp-Her Extensive Spruce Forests.

In Canada the subject of water power is obtaining consideration in connection with various industries, says the London Telegraph. One of these is the manufacture of paper from wood pulp. The dominion contains more spruce, the best wood for this purpose, than all the rest that in view of the importance which of the world put together, and possesses Elijah III. attaches to the monetary end at the same time vastly more unused IN OTHER LANDS THAN OURS.

Word with a History.

"Shibboleth" is a word frequently used in modern politics, though it may be doubted whether many politicians know the history of it. Curiously enough, this Hebrew word really means "an ear of corn" as well as a "river;" but its significance for moderns arises from the fact that it was employed as a test to distinguish the

HEARD AFTER THE PLAY.

One of the most popular actors in Vienna is Ludwig-Martinelli, who has been on the stage 45 years. He is still active in his profession.

At the Urania theater, Buda-Pesth, a play, "Berlin Life," is being produced that deals mostly with the home life of the German emperor. His second son, Prince Eitel Fritz, appears under the name of Archduke Attila.

Miss Alberta Gallatin, who is a daughter of the confederate general. Albert Gallatin, has been denied honorary membership in the Virginia Daughters of the Confederacy because she is acting in the play "Ghosts," which the Virginia daughters condemn on moral grounds.

Prof. Albert Eulenberg, the wellknown German neurologist, agrees with Dr. May, Schiller's physician, that actors are more nervous than women. He thinks that the plays of Ibsen, Hauptmann and Bjornson are particularly injurious to them, and mentions the case of one actor who was utterly wrecked by one of the modern realistic plays.

An actress now playing in London wears about $75,000 worth of diamonds every evening. She owns jewels worth $250,000 altogether, including a fiverope pearl necklace said to be exceeded in value only by a similar decoration possessed by Queen Alexandra. The jewels owned by the player in question are kept in a bank, a man from which brings them to the theater and takes them back at each performance.

A comic opera singer in New York has put to shame all previous efforts in the way of advertising by suing her dressmaker for $1,000 damages because a certain stage costume was cut too low in the corsage.
